Rt. 7, Frederick, Md. 21701

Dear Mr. Mackay,

Thanks for your thoughtful letter. Delay in answering is because I was away. What you report about the bookstores is true everywhere.

There is one of my books you do not have, the third, as the enclosed list shows. In some ways it is the hottest.

In time I think many of the "theories" will evaporate Rather than try and agree with the beliefs of others that I earlier abandoned or never had any reason to credit I devote what time I can to continuing development of new fact on the subject. My fifth book has been ready for some time. It is not yet out because I now do not dare risk the additional debt.

Again, my hasty thanks.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
